Abstract:

In this section of al Ziyara al Jam'ia four qualities of the Ahlul Bayt (a) are articulately mentioned. The first is that they are the inheritors of the prophets. What they exactly inherit from the previous prophets will be explained. The second is that they are al mathal al a'la (the highest attribute). The meaning of this in relation to the fact that God is referred to as being al mathal al a'ala Himself in the Quran will be discussed. The third quality is that they are al da'wa al husna. There are two interpretations for this line of the ziyara and they both will be expanded upon. Finally, the quality of being the arguments of God and the different types of arguments of God will be elaborated, insha'Allah.

About the Speaker:

Sayyid Abbas Razavian grew up in the greater Los Angeles area. He received his bachelor's degree in business administration from the Marshall School of Business at the University of Southern California in 2001.

At the age of 21 he moved to Tehran, Iran to study in the Islamic Seminary of Tehran with the late honorable akhlaq(ethics) teacher Ayatullah Mujtahidi.

After the passing of his akhlaq teacher, he moved to Qum to continue his studies in Islamic legal theory and law.

After finishing the sutuh of the hawza(Islamic seminary), he began bahth al-kharij. He is currently in his sixth year of bahth kharij.

Altogether he has studied for over 16 years in the Islamic seminary. He has had English speaking engagements throughout the US.
